

Frequently Asked Questions for Creative iMedia

1. What is the exam board?

OCR - Oxford Cambridge and RSA.

2. How many exams are there and what percentage of the total is each exam?

There is one written exam. The exam is worth one third of the course.

3. Is there any coursework?

Yes - 2 coursework. Students will be creating digital products using assignment briefing provided by exam board.

4. How much of the course is coursework?

Two-thirds of the course is coursework based.

5. Are there any key resources that I should buy to support my child taking this subject?

No, resources will be provided

6. How often are they tested?

Students will be completing their coursework elements timely, deadline will be set by class teacher. There will be opportunities for practice test for exam unit.

7. What key qualities are required to do well in Creative iMedia?

- Literacy

Students are expected to articulate answers efficiently and using correct ICT terminology to answer exam questions but also enhance their understanding when developing their digital products.

- Logical Reasoning

Students need to be able to analyse a problem in a systematic way and create digital products using project plan. They must follow logical steps.

- Tech Savvy

Students should have a passion for technology and have a curiosity to learn at a technically higher level.

8. What if students do not wish to progress into creative area? Can they still study the course?

Yes. They can progress into other IT roles and enhance their problem solving, logical and analytical skills for a wide range of future career paths. Students will be able to think more efficiently and have a better understanding in technology in their desired field of work.

OUR
VALUES | DETERMINATION
ADAPTABILITY
CURIOSITY
RESPECT