

■ Sanuwar Hussain holds his trophies with Citi's Swati Patel and Roy Howard of Young Enterprise

Student is top speaker

A pupil with a lot to say has won a school's public speaking competition.

Sanuwar Hussain, aged 13, from Bow School won the Citi Passport to Employability Presentation Skills Competition hosted at the offices of global bank Citi in Canary Wharf.

Sanuwar beat 160 competitors through a series of heats with his chosen topic Diversity and Inclusion.

The judges awarded third prize to Mohammed Al Miqdad from Stepney Green School and second place to Tafhīm Chowdhury, also from Stepney Green.
